THE PHILADELPHIA NATIONAL BANK.

B. B. COMEGYS, PRESIDENT.
J. W. TORREY, CASHIER.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12th 1889

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent of the United States Mint,
Philadelphia,

Sir:

We have very urgent appeals from valued correspondents for minor coins, which we have found it very difficult to satisfy owing to the inability of the Mint to supply us.

To-day we were able to get a small quantity of coin; coupled however with the injunction to not ship any of it out of town if we desired to avoid trouble.

We would gladly divide with one of our valued friends. Have we your permission?

Very respectfully,

B. B. Comegys Pt.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 159

The Philadelphia National Bank.
Philadelphia,
October 12, 1889

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent of the United States Mint,
Philadelphia,

Sir:

We have very urgent appeals from valued correspondents for minor coins, which we have found it very difficult to satisfy owing to the inability of the Mint to supply us.

To-day we were able to get a small quantity of coin; coupled however with the injunction to not ship any of it out of town if we desired to avoid trouble.

We would gladly divide with one of our valued friends. Have we your permission?

Very respectfully,
B.B. Comegys, Pr.